

Rededication . . .

I rededicated my son to the Lord on Easter Sunday. I felt since I rededicated my life to Christ that it was important to rededicate my son as well. And since he is such a strong-willed child, I want to make sure I raise him well. And I am pointing him to the Light because this is a dark world. He has an independent personality, and I am expecting him to be a leader.

It important to me that we are good examples to others and show that God can work in our lives. The verse that I chose for him is John 3:16 because as new Christians it's a scripture we can stand on that reminds us of God's love for us.

What a Difference Fresh Paint Makes

It's absolutely amazing what a fresh paint job can do!

As House Managers we wear many hats and at times a painter's hat is needed. Painting can be easy most days, with a small touch up here or there but there are times when it is an undertaking if the project is bigger, and with bigger projects extra hands are always welcomed and appreciated.

By God's amazing grace and provision, He did just that through John and the Saddleback Church men's fellowship. They skillfully and wonderfully gave a much needed fresh coat of paint to our 3 upstairs rooms, and the hallway, just for good measure.

Painting is a tedious job and as volunteering projects go, doesn't offer much for Face Time, but these men came quietly and marked this house with the love of Jesus that many families will be blessed to enjoy for years to come.
