

Hello Ms. Belinda,

I pray you all are doing well. I want to give you an update of how my life is going since graduating from the Sheepfold. I want to thank you and all the amazing Staff who in many ways were such a blessing to me and my kids.

I know God's hand has been over all my journey. I graduated from both my programs (Paralegal and Interpreter/Translator) last week. I was able to fulfill my goal and graduate with honors, 4.0 GPA in both programs. I am leaving California to move to the East Coast and start my new job next month.

Thank you all for helping me get back on track with Jesus and for believing in what God had in store for my future. I will always be connected with the Sheepfold. Please let me know if I can ever be of service. I love you so much!

Daily Bible Study Blessings

We recently had a mom make the decision to exit our program. During the time that she was with us, she and her daughters prayed to receive Jesus into their hearts and were baptized the following week.

When this particular mom came to me and told me she was ready to leave, I encouraged her to stay in the Word and to continue to pursue her relationship with the Lord. I was able to show her where she can find our daily Bible studies on our website and encouraged her to continue to do one every day just like she would if she were here with us.

A couple days after she left, she texted me a picture of the Bible study she was working on that morning. It was the same number study we would have done together that day. I am so thankful for this ministry and for the fact that Fran wrote 95 different Bible Studies that are on our website for anyone to access, especially the women that exit our program.

Please join us in continued prayers for every mother and child that enters our doors, that they would continue to seek after the Lord.

-Kelli, Sheepfold House Manager

I wanted to get baptized to feel closer to God, to go in this path instead of the one I was going through.

I wanted to get baptized because I wanted to accept Jesus into my heart.

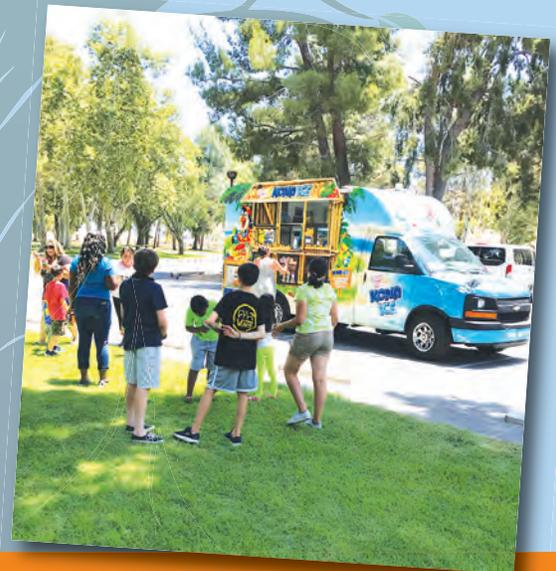

After being baptized I felt like I just took 100 showers.

I felt light and like my past was washed away, that it's time to start off new on a better path without hate & pain.
